A Symphony of Sounds: Exploring Friedrich's Arrangements

Friedrich's arrangements for horn and piano span a wide range of styles and genres, from classical to contemporary. Each arrangement is meticulously tailored to the unique characteristics of both instruments, creating a harmonious blend of textures and colors.

- Baroque Masterpieces Reimagined: Friedrich's arrangements of Baroque masterpieces, such as Bach's "Air on the G String" and Handel's "Largo from Xerxes," capture the essence of the originals while adding a touch of brilliance and modernity.
- Romantic Melodies in a New Light: Friedrich transforms Romantic melodies, such as Schumann's "Träumerei" and Schubert's "Serenade," into intimate and evocative duets, highlighting the sensitivity of the horn and the expressive depth of the piano.
- Contemporary Explorations: Friedrich's contemporary arrangements, such as his "Sonata for Horn and Piano" and "Variations on a Theme of Mozart," push the boundaries of the traditional horn and piano repertoire, exploring new harmonic and rhythmic possibilities.

The Horns of Plenty: Friedrich's Expansive Catalogue

Friedrich's catalogue of horn and piano arrangements is vast and diverse, offering a treasure trove of musical delights for performers and listeners alike.

Among his most notable arrangements are:

- "Horn Concerto No. 4" by Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart: Friedrich's arrangement of Mozart's beloved concerto captures the brilliance and virtuosity of the original, while adding a touch of modern elegance.

- "Sonata for Horn and Piano" by Ludwig van Beethoven: Friedrich's arrangement of Beethoven's iconic sonata showcases the interplay between the horn's lyrical melodies and the piano's rich harmonies.
- "Morceau de Concert" by Camille Saint-Saëns: Friedrich's arrangement of this virtuosic showpiece highlights the horn's technical agility and the piano's supportive brilliance.
