Are you a budding wordsmith with a passion for storytelling? Do you find inspiration in the intricate threads of human connection and the transformative power of knitting? If so, the Knitting Other Stories Margaret River Short Story Competition 2024 is your chance to showcase your literary prowess and let your creativity soar.

Now in its fourth year, the Knitting Other Stories Margaret River Short Story Competition is a prestigious literary event that celebrates the art of short storytelling. Open to writers from all corners of the globe, the competition invites submissions of original, unpublished short stories that explore the diverse themes of knitting, community, and the human experience.

Unveiling the Knitting Other Stories Margaret River Short Story Competition 2024 Guidelines

To ensure a fair and engaging competition, the Knitting Other Stories Margaret River Short Story Competition 2024 has established a set of guidelines that all participants are kindly requested to adhere to:

1. Eligibility: The competition is open to writers of all ages, nationalities, and experience levels. However, employees of Margaret River Short Story Competition, their immediate families, and anyone directly involved in the organization of the competition are ineligible to participate.
2. Theme: Stories should explore the themes of knitting, community, and the human experience. Submissions that deviate significantly from these themes may not be considered for judging.
3. Word Limit: Stories must be between 1,500 and 5,000 words in length. Stories that exceed the word limit will be automatically disqualified.
4. Originality: All submitted stories must be original, unpublished works of the entrant. Plagiarism or submitting someone else's work as your own will result in disqualification.
5. Language: Entries must be written in English.
6. Format: Submissions should be typed in a standard font (e.g., Times New Roman, Arial, Calibri) with a font size of 12 points. Margins should be 1 inch on all sides. The story title should be centered at the top of the first page, followed by the author's name and contact information.

7. Submission Deadline: The deadline for submissions is March 31, 2024. Late submissions will not be accepted.
